History of The Gallery Group, Inc.

The Gallery Group, Inc., formerly known in 1959 as the "Women's Committee of Lakewood Civic Art," was founded by a group of ten women. Their primary purpose was to promote interest in the Lakewood High School Art Gallery. A second important purpose was to create a Spring and Fall Lecture Series. Membership grew rapidly under exceptionally able leadership. The Gallery Group, Inc. programs have enriched minds, shared beauty and provided artistic opportunities to countless numbers in the western suburbs of Cleveland.

The Gallery Group, Inc. has given art scholarships at the elementary, high school and college levels. Income generated over the years has amounted to over $165,150 making these scholarships possible. The Gallery Group, Inc. has provided approximately $80,000 in funds for the Cleveland Museum of Art; $69,000 to the Cleveland Institute of Art Scholarship Fund; Since 1983, $67,400 to the Beck Center Scholarship Fund. Other beneficiaries over the years include: Baldwin-Wallace College, Lakewood High School, The Cleveland Artists Foundation, Friends of the Cleveland School of the Arts, Cleveland Playhouse Square Foundation, Gordon Square Art District, Cleveland Public Art, Morgan Paper Making and West Side Market.

The purpose of The Gallery Group, Inc., as set forth in its constitution is fourfold:

1. To promote cultural activity, particularly in the field of the visual Arts of the West Side of Greater Cleveland.
2. To aid and promote the Beck Center for the Arts, Cleveland Museum of Art, the Cleveland Institute of Art and, occasionally, other deserving art organizations.
3. To establish grants and/or scholarships for talented art students from the West Side of Greater Cleveland.
4. To promote a Fall and Spring Lecture Series for the enrichment of the membership.

2018-2019

The Gallery Group, Inc. Scholarships to Beck Center for the Cultural Arts

The Gallery Group, Inc. Scholarships to Beck Center provided monies for the visual arts program and students who otherwise might not have access to the arts.

Gail Glagola - SAORI WEAVING

Date: Tuesday, September 17, 2019
Time: 10:00 a.m. Presentation
Location: Cleveland Yacht Club, 200 Yacht Club Dr.
Rocky River, OH 44116

In the late "1960's" the times were "a changin'" and the global trend was for people to value "Self Realization and Spiritual Fulfillment" more highly than the materialism of mass production. Crossing the ocean was the beautiful and non-uniform art called SAORI WEAVING developed by Misao Jo in which you express your true self, developing your mind towards respect for others personalities. SAORI WEAVING breaks with the conventional patterned thinking which values uniformity and evenness. Come join us as we weave colors and textures to create a memory of this gathering. Gail Glagola a retired Art Director from N.Y. brings her loom, yarns and treasures to have you join the joyful experience of "Self Innovation Through Free Weaving"

Following the program CYC will provide a seated luncheon. Cash bar will be provided.

Members: $32.00 Guests: $42.00

Conversations in Art Styles

Date: Tuesday, October 8, 2019
Time: 9:30 am Coffee - Program 10:00am
Location: Music and Arts Building - Beck Center
17501 Detroit Ave., Lakewood, OH 44107

Visual art departments like those at Beck Center for the Arts offer the community a wealth of mediums for students to explore their interests and hone their skills. Join three members of the Beck visual art faculty as they discuss their respective mediums, and how styles across the art world coexist and overlap. From whimsical comic strips in the local newspaper to bringing unique perspectives to their students every day. Led by Beck's Assistant Director of Education, Jessica Firing, faculty members Douglas Laubacher, Linda Merchant Pearce and Patricia Hanrahan Sigmier will offer a lively discussion of their artwork, the unique career path of the modern artist, and how art styles - now so diverse - when brought together create new inspiration. Samples of their artwork will be present, along with opportunity for audience interaction.

Visit to the Reinberger Gallery, Cleveland Institute of Art

Date: Wednesday, May 6, 2020
Time: 11:00 am - Welcome and Introduction remarks by Grafton Nunes, President and CEO
Location: Cleveland Institute of Art
11610 Euclid Ave. Cleveland, OH 44106

ELECTIVE AFFINITIES

After the welcome and introduction by Grafton Nunes, President and CEO, we will have a tour of the exhibition led by Nikki Woods, Director of the Reinberger Gallery.

What happens once the artist leaves the haven of formal training and student life? How do artists maintain their generative reserves to make work and construct the support needed for inspiration and longevity? What alternative approaches are necessary for artists to produce their work and for communities to thrive?

Through a series of thought-provoking lectures and exhibition, Elective Affinities seeks to explore the expanded meaning of "professional practice" in relationship to the art world at large.

After the tour a box lunch will be served.
